COURSE DESCRIPTION (EN/L1 [if taught in L1])
Content
Dwelling is a vital condition and activity. In continuation of the seminar from the winter semester, we will explore the question of what characterizes dwelling. And how dwelling becomes the plaything of various powers, from the financial market to propagandistic demands to camps in which dwelling can become a nightmare. We will discuss fundamental texts on the topic, including works by Aalbers, Agamben, and P. Marcuse. You can take this course even if you did not attend the winter semester seminar on dwelling. If you did attend, don't worry: there will be little overlap with the winter seminar, and we will discuss new texts!
