COURSE DESCRIPTION (EN/L1 [if taught in L1])

Content

This course aims at familiarizing students with approaches to the study of human language in general and to English in particular. Attention will be paid to important concepts and terms of core areas of theoretical linguistics (phonetics, phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, and pragmatics) and to their relevance to the fields of applied linguistics, such as language acquisition and sociolinguistics.

Competences & Learning Objectives

This course aims at familiarizing students with approaches to the study of human language in general and to English in particular.
